

LINKS

Information about Living and Working in Germany:

- The Manual for Germany is intended for immigrants who are considering settling in Germany and who, before arriving or having just arrived, would like to find out about life in Germany. The manual provides current and general information on the country and people, politics and law, work and social security, as well as on everyday life. It is published in different language including English: http://www.handbuch-deutschland.de/index_en.html
- The Germany Embassy in Washington has a good website: Interested in the news from Germany? Curious about German-American relations or doing business in Germany? Planning a vacation or a year-abroad at a German university? Germany Online is your source for information about all aspects of German life and politics. <http://www.germany.info/re-launch/welcome/welcome.html>
- The How to Germany website is the best on-line information resource for expatriates in Germany: the website of How to Germany magazine. How to Germany tells you everything you need to know about living and working in Germany as a foreigner. The magazine's feature archives are available on this website, and they are updated frequently. <http://www.howtogermany.com/index.htm>
- The Expatica website <http://www.expatica.com/> has a useful section on Germany. Why don't you download their "Expat survival guide"? It is described as your essential guide to living and working in Germany:
<http://www.expatica.com/guides/germany.pdf>
- Check out the English Language pages from the Federal Foreign Office website: <http://www.auswaertiges-amt.de/diplo/en/Startseite.html#>. There is a very good section called "Welcome to Germany" which has a lot of practical advice about living and working in Germany.

Useful Websites for teachers

If you are looking for a job, then look up all the language schools in the yellow pages:
<http://www.gelbeseiten.de/> (German Language)

If you are looking for a lawyer then try looking at the lawyer-search-service
<http://www.anwalt-suchservice.de/> (German Language)

This company could be very useful if you are looking for medical or home insurance:
<http://uk.mawista.com/>

If you want to join a trade union for teachers, then try: Gewerkschaft Erziehung und Wissenschaft <http://www.gew.de/Startseite.html> (German Language)

Teacher's Organisations

ELTAU \(Ulm\)

ELTA-Rhine \(Cologne\)

ELTAB-B \(Berlin-Brandenburg\)

ELTAF \(Frankfurt\)

HELTA \(Hamburg\)

MELTA \(Munich\)

IATEFL \(International Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language\)

EFLTU \(Foreign Language Teachers United\)